

Nand Kishore Singh is a member of the Rajya Sabha from the state of Bihar. Currently, he serves on the parliamentary Committee on Human Resource Development, the Committee on MPs Local Area Development Scheme, the Committee on Public Accounts, the Consultative Committee on Finance, the Committee on Rules, and the House Committee, Parliamentary Forum on Global Warming and Climate Change.

Mr. Singh is on the governing bodies of research organisations like the Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations (ICRIER), and the International Management Institute (IMI).

Mr. Singh has been among the country's top bureaucrats and handled important portfolios such as India's Finance Secretary, Member of the Planning Commission, and Secretary to the Prime Minister. He was the main advisor to the PM on all economic issues and macro policy including foreign direct investment, energy, transport, tax and infrastructure policy.

Mr. Singh has a wide range of national and international experience having interacted closely with multilateral organizations like World Bank, IMF, ADB, UNCTAD, GATT, WTO, UNDP and OECD.

Mr. N.K. Singh has a Master's Degree in Economics and was teaching Economics at the prestigious St. Stephen's College, Delhi prior to joining the Civil Service. Mr. Singh has lectured widely at eminent universities and is currently also Short Term Senior Visiting Fellow at the University of Stanford.